Carolus Rex: /

Trusty & well beloved wee greet you weell wee takinge into oure princely Consideration that the Honor & safety of this our Realme of England, the preseruatiō whereof is only Intrusted to oure care was and is nowe more nearly concer~ned then in former times aswell by divers Councells & attempts to take from vs the dominion of the seas of whiche wee ar sole Lord & Rightfull owner & the Losse whereof would bee of greeter danger & perrill to this Kingdome & other oure dominions as many other waies wee for the auoidinge of theis & the like dangers and well weighinge w[ith] oure selues [tha]t where the good & safety of the Kingdome in gennerall is Concerned and the whole Kingdome in dan~ger there the charge & defence ought to be borne by all the Realme in

in gennerall did by preuentinge so gennerall A mischeife resolue with our selues to haue a Royall Navy prouided that might bee of force and power with Allmightie gods blessinge and Asistance to defen{d} this oure Realme & our subiects therein from all perrills And for that purpose wee sent forty writts under our great seale of England directed to all the Sherifes of our seuerall Counties in England & wales thereby commandinge all our said Subiects in euery Cittie towne & village to prouide such a number of Shipps well furnished as might bee do{nn}e by the greatest equality that might bee in p[er]formance where of thoughe genneraly through all the Counties of this our Realme wee haue found in our subiects great Cheerfullnes & Alacrity which wee gratiusly interprett as a testimony as well of their dutifull affections to vs & our

seruice /

[3r]

seruice as of their respects they haue to the publicke which well becomes euery good subiect never the lese finding some fewe happily out of ignorance knowinge not what the Lawes & Customes of our Realme are or out of a desire to bee eased and freed in their p[ar]ticuler (howe gennerall soeuer the Charge ought to bee. haue not yet payed and Contributed the seuerall rates & Asesments that were sett vppon them. And fore seeinge in our princely wisdome that from hence diuers suites and victio{u}s are not vnlikely to bee comenced and prosecuted in oure seuerall Courts att westminster wee desirous to auoide suche in Con{v}eniences and out of our princely Loue and affection to all oure people beinge willinge to prevent such errors as any of oure Louinge subiects may happen to runn into haue thought fitt in Case of this nature to advise with /

with our Judges who wee doubt not are well {s}tudied and informed in the Rights of oure Souerainty And because the tryalls of oure seuerall Courtes by their formalites and pleadings will require longe protractions wee haue thought expedient by this our letter directed to you all to require yo[ur] Judgements in the cause as is sett downe in the inclosed paper which will not onely gaine time by alsoe bee of mor{e} Authority to ouer rule any p[re]{ } indirect opinions of others in this poynt. /
